

William S. Hart in "Wagon Tracks" at Central Tonight

Great historic interest centers about William S. Hart's new Art-craft picture, produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince and entitled "Wagon Tracks." It is a C. Gardner Sullivan picture and will be seen at the Central theatre tonight and Eagle theatre Thursday.

Mr. Sullivan took the old Santa Fe Trail from Kansas to Santa Fe as the locale of his picture and the period is about 1850. The experiences of the early pioneers bent on reaching the lands of plenty have been accurately depicted in this story in which Mr. Hart appears as a scout or leader of the caravans, such as were Kit Carson and similar figures of frontier history.

A romantic love interest is involved, but the thrills of the desert struggles against privation and marauders will prove most fascinating no doubt. Lambert Hillier directed the picture and Jane Novak is leading woman. She heads an unusually clever supporting company. Robert McKim plays the heavy role, that of a gambler.

Will Hold Practical Mining Course Lecture at Y Building Today

The practical mining course lecture today will be on breaking ground. The lecture will be given by F. D. Lane, efficiency engineer of the Copper Queen.

In this lecture Lane will take up the results of experiments in breaking ground, denotators, safety fuse, rate of drilling, drill steel, bits, the selection of the type of round, the relation of diameter, depth, angle and line of least resistance, cutting sidings, spacing and pointing of holes, priming, firing, tamping and loading broken material.

Classes will be held in the Y. M. C. A. at 1 and 7 o'clock. All are invited to be present.

Great Film Success Occupies Screen at Lyric Theater Today

Leah Baird literally goes through fire and water in some of the big scenes of her newest Augustus Thomas drama, "The Capitol," a W. W. Hodgkinson release, which comes to the Lyric Theatre today.

Though the popular artist has demonstrated her daring in ten or more of her successful starring vehicles, it remained for "The Capitol" to supply her greatest thrill and, from the way she emerged from the big fire scene in the Augustus Thomas photodrama, Miss Baird will do some tall thinking in the future when the subject of being a party to any more such death-dealing deeds is broached.

But her thrilling escape from a burning villa with a child in her arms leads Leah Baird to an even more perilous adventure in "The Capitol." The prize package in perils shows the star hurried down a capsize canoe into the Potomac river, dangerously close to the falls. Being an expert swimmer, Miss Baird throttled all talk of using a dummy or a double for the drowning incident and entered into the smashing climax as though riding the waves propelled by a mad current was an every-day happening of her life.

Ashurst Predicts Victory of Entire Democratic Ticket

(Special to The Review)

PHOENIX, Oct. 19.—Senator Henry Ashurst arrived in Phoenix this morning after an intensive campaign throughout Sma, Santa Cruz, Cochise, Graham, Greenlee and Gila counties, and states that the entire Democratic ticket will be elected by more than 6000 majority.

He states that he has never seen more enthusiasm in behalf of a state ticket than that which prevails at this time, and he is gratified that the Democratic candidates have conducted a clean, manly campaign, discussing issues and not men.

"The people are convinced that Senator Harding is the candidate of reaction," Senator Ashurst told a newspaper correspondent today. The methods which brought about Harding's nomination in the conference in the smoke-filled back room of a hotel, wherein the men who have always opposed constructive reforms in and out of the senate, dictated Mr. Harding's nomination, have aroused the resentment of the friends of liberalism and progress.

"Gov. Cox has displayed not only a business, but a profundity of thought which marks him as a statesman of the most valuable type. Gov. Cox has dodged no questions. He has not pussy footed, whilst Harding has trimmed, dodged and turned somersaults on vital questions all through the campaign."

Senator Ashurst will speak at Yuma, Oct. 22; Alo, Oct. 23; Prescott, Oct. 26, and at Flagstaff Oct. 27.

W. P. "Dad" Craig is the regular Democratic nominee for justice of the peace in Bisbee Precinct.

Maricopa County Leader Condemns Division Measure

MESA, Oct. 19.—O. S. Stanley, Democratic candidate for state senator for Maricopa county, and recognized as the leader of county divisionists in the south side of Maricopa county, today declared he was unalterably opposed to the proposed county division law to be submitted to voters as an initiated measure at the general election.

"I am in favor of a new county division law, less cumbersome than the present one," said Stanley today, "but I believe every voter in the county or counties from which a new county is formed should have the right to vote on the question. The formation of new counties, when it would mean higher taxes for the residents of every section, should be a matter in which every man and woman, either in the old or new county, should have a voice. Adoption of the Van Dyke county division measure would mean an injustice to the rights of every property owner in Arizona."

Stanley said he intended to carry his opposition to the measure throughout his campaign. He branded the county division measure as "undemocratic and unfair," to the voters of Arizona.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Western Lampasas-Bisbee Oil company tonight, at the county building. Messrs. Johnson, J. H. Verfurth and Nels Okestrom have returned from the well and will be present. Business of importance.
